Blenz Coffee Announces Heroes for Heroes Day to Celebrate Healthcare Workers

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 25, 2025 — Blenz Coffee is proud to announce Heroes for Heroes Day, a heartfelt campaign dedicated to recognizing the extraordinary efforts of healthcare workers who care for our communities each and every day. On Wednesday, June 25, Blenz locations will be offering a free small handcrafted beverage to all healthcare professionals as a small but meaningful gesture of thanks.

Event Details:

- Date: Wednesday, June 25th, 2025
- Time: All Day
- Location: All Blenz Coffee locations

As a thank-you to the backbone of our healthcare system, Blenz is offering a free small-sized hot or iced Café Latte, Americano, Matcha Latte, Tea, or Chocolate to all healthcare professionals. This includes a wide range of essential roles—from clinical staff and frontline workers to wellness providers and community health professionals.

Eligible positions include:

- Clinical Staff such as nurses (RNs, LPNs, nurse practitioners), doctors, lab technicians, respiratory therapists, and paramedics
- Wellness & Rehab Teams including physiotherapists, occupational therapists, massage therapists, chiropractors, and dietitians
- Community Health Workers and mental health professionals
- Certified Health Professionals and members of recognized healthcare associations

To claim their free drink, guests simply need to present valid proof of employment, such as an employee ID card, business card, professional certification, or recent pay stub.

Don't miss the fun:

During your visit, you'll also have the opportunity to pick up a Beat the Barista stamp card, exclusive to healthcare workers, on June 25. It's a fun and easy way to collect stamps and earn exciting prizes on future visits. Want to know how it works? Just ask your Barista!

BLENZ COFFEE®

“We see healthcare workers as the true heroes who care for us in our most vulnerable moments,” said Geoffrey Hair, President and Co-Founder of Blenz Coffee. “Whether they’re providing emergency care, supporting recovery, or promoting wellness, their contributions deserve to be seen and celebrated. Heroes for Heroes Day is our way of pouring out some gratitude, one cup at a time.”

Community Commitment:

Heroes for Heroes Day is a cornerstone of Blenz Cares, our initiative to spark positive change and strengthen the places we call home. By partnering with charities like the Canadian Cancer Society, Theatre Under the Stars, United Way, and the Surrey Dance Festival, we’re committed to making a lasting impact. This event is more than a free drink—it’s a moment to connect, celebrate, and build loyalty with the folks who serve our cities.
